Songs of Hope & Joy

kantorei
2009 ~ 2010
SEASON

2009 ~ 2010
SEASON

So many things in our lives can be the source for Hope and Joy. Often we are so isolated in our own world that we miss many of the beautiful things that surround us. The messages we receive and which captivate us are delivered via earplugs and cell-phones. No matter where we are and what we are doing - if walking in a park or along a lakeshore - we want to be in touch - but we end up disconnecting ourselves from so many sources that could bring us Hope and Joy.

Do we perhaps choose that kind of isolation because we are afraid to be touched by suffering and pain?

How often do we allow ourselves to marvel at nature renewing itself in the spring-time, the song of birds in the summer, the marvelous colors in the fall, and the stunning beauty of blue sky contrasting with the blinding white of a fresh layer of snow?

We are always welcome to being the recipients of messages and images of Hope and Joy. How often are we the source of it to others?

We invite you to be a part of our world during our new concert season and to allow yourself to be genuinely affected by the emotional powers of music, performed in the uniquely beautiful style of Kantorei.

We hope that our singing and the sharing of our love for music will allow you to rediscover some of the beauty that surrounds us all the time - if only we are open to see and hear the signs and messages. That alone would be enough to fill all of us with Freude.
